THE JOHN SPITLER FAMILY

Compiled by:

Arlie H. Spitler

(1948)

Allen County Public Library
Ft. Wayne, Indiana

705-1185

It is a noble faculty of our natures which enables us to connect our thoughts, sympathies and happiness with what is distant in place or time, and looking before and after, to hold communion at once with our ancestors and our posterity. There is a moral and philosophical respect for our ancestory, which elevates the character and improves the heart. Next to the sense of religious duty and moral feeling, I hardly know what should bear with stronger obligation on a liberal and enlightened mind that a conciousness of an allegiance with excellence which is departed, and a conciousness too, that in its acts and conduct, and even in its thoughts and sentiments may be actively operating on the happiness of others that may come after us.

Foreword

In 1935 the compiler of this record began gathering data of the Spitler family, and continued to do so during spare time until the beginning of World War II, when interest in the work slackened, both with the writer and with those he would endeavor to contact for further data, in order to make it more complete, until finally all efforts came to a stop.

Many have insisted recently that I duplicate or print in some form the records compiled to date, fearing something might happen causing their loss, which I have decided to do, although it is not as complete as I had hoped.

Perhaps there is no more discouraging work than compiling family records, but fortunately there are always some who are interested and assist, otherwise the task would be an impossibility.

I wish to make special mention of a few for their splendid co-operation and contributions. Viz: Mr. S. H. Modesitt, Luray, Va., Mr. Leonard Dove, Washington, D.C., Mrs. Hazel Price, Ogden, Utah., Mrs. Jennie Ellis, Dustin, Okla., Mrs. B. F. Bell, Nevada, Iowa., to these, and many, many others, too numerous to mention, who furnished records, I am truly grateful.

SPITLER

Origin of the surname. Derived from the word Spitale---in connection, or association with a hospital

Explanation

This work is divided into two parts. Part One is a record of the decendants of Abraham Spitler, and Part Two a record of the decendents of Jacob Spitler, the two sons of John Spitler. Their children are taken in rotation according to their ages. For instance, Joseph was the eldest or first child of Abraham. A complete record of his decendents, as far as possible, down to the present generation is given, then Anna, his second child, and a record of her decendents to the present generation, etc.

SECTION ONE

"ABRAHAM"

PART ONE

John Spitler, first ancestor, as far as is known, of this branch of the Spitler family in America. No record of the date of his birth. No proof whether he was an emigrant, or if born in America. Died between Dec. 19, 1752 and March 16, 1753. Place of burial unknown, probably in the Spitler burial ground, near Luray, Va. He was killed while raising a log house.

The following is copied from a clipping which appeared in the "Page News & Courier", Luray, Va., Nov. 22, 1929, written by Mrs. A. V. S. Milbourne, information which she obtained in the course of investigations for five years previously, for a history of Page County:

"It is my opinion, though I have no proof, that the Spitlers came from Switzerland, as did many of the Massanutten settlers. John Spitler was the first of the name in Page, settling on Mill Creek, with John Jacob Rothgeb and Rudy Mauck as his neighbors. All three obtained deeds from Lord Fairfax about the same time, in the year 1749. John Spitler's deed for 200 acres adjoining the upper end of Roadcap's (Rothgeb's), where he lived upon Mill Creek, was dated Sept. 16, 1749. Spitler may have been in possession of the land ten or twelve years, but unable to get a deed until the claim of Lord Fairfax, as proprieter of the land was decided. This deed is on record in the land office at Richmond.

John Spitler signed as one of the witnesses of the Will of Jacob Rothgeb on Dec. 19, 1753, but when Rothgeb's Will was brought to court, he and the other witnesses were dead, and the Will was proved by oaths of John Taylor, who saw them sign. This was on March 16, 1753. His death, therefore was between these dates. This record is found in Augusta Co. Will Book #1, Page being in Augusta at that Time. John Spitler did not have a Will, but from the records in the grant books at Richmond, it appears that he had two sons, Abraham & Jacob, that his wife's name was Elizabeth, and that she married a Mr. Hay as her second husband.

August 9, 1771, Jacob Spitler, obtained a deed from Lord Fairfax for 390 acres on the branches of Mill Creek, reserving unto Elizabeth Hayes one-third part for her natural lifetime, and after her death the whole to him.

April 2, 1772, Abraham Spitler, son and heir at law of John Spitler, deceased, obtained a similar grant from Lord Fairfax, with the same reservation. This was evidently the same tract originally deeded to John Spitler, with the addition of over 300 acres adjoining, for which John Spitler had not completed his title when he died."

Abraham Spitler, born July 1746. Died March 26, 1830. Buried in the old Spitler Graveyard, Five and one-half miles S.W. of Luray, Va. Married Mary Strickler. She was born Feb. 20, 1746. Died July 2, 1825.

His monument, a solid piece of cast iron, about an inch in thickness, the lettering molded on it, bears the following inscription:

"Sacred to the memory of Abraham Spitler Sr., who departed this life on the 26th day of March, A.D. 1830, in the 83rd year of his age, much regretted by his numerous relatives and acquaintances. He was for about 60 years a Minister of the Gospel of the Primitive Baptist Denomination, and manifested by his zealous course and pious conversation that his heart was sincerely engaged in the work. May his example stimulate the reader to seek the one thing needful. Man is born to die. Dust thou art and to dust thou shalt return".

This monument had been lying flat on the ground for several years, and in the early 1930's a few of his decendants erected a concrete monument about thirty inches square and embedded the cast iron in the face of it.

Both he and his brother Jacob are included in the list (Muster Roll) of Michael Reader's Company, published in Gaius Marcus Brumbaugh's "Revolutionary War Records" Vol. I, page 602-603, Virginia.

Description of the Isaac Spitler Stone House, located four and one-half miles S.E. of Luray, Va., one mile east of Route #616 on the south side of Route #644 on Mill Creek, which no doubt was the home of Abraham Spitler, Sr., until a new home was erected just one-eigth mile to the south "Whitehall", generally known as the old Spitler homestead, later the home of his son, Abraham, Jr., then his youngest son Col. Mann Spitler.

By Mrs. Paul Black, Luray, Va.

"This home is most unusual. It consists of two separate rooms, with a large opening between the two, with the roof extending over the entire building. The room on the east is what I choose to call the Fort Room. In it there are six port holes, two inches wide and two feet long, two in the north, two on the east, and two on the south. These narrow slits in the thick wall widen inwardly to afford an occupant ample room for aiming and shooting at Indians, or any other enemy. In the west wall, which is one end of the large opening, is a very large inside chimney with an open fireplace, 17 inches square and nine feet long. The fireplace opening is six and one-half feet wide, and still has two old iron cranes, probably used by the early Spitlers.

Just north of this is the foundation of an old brick oven, which I believe was built at the time the new brick mansion was erected, about 1825.

Beyond the other end of the opening is the other room, seventeen feet long and sixteen and one-half feet wide, used for the living quarters. At the west end of this room was another large chimney. On the north, I noticed a built-in cabinet approximately three feet high and extended from the chimney to the north wall. This room was nicely finished, with the walls plastered, and the ceiling sealed with wide inch thick, hand tongued and grooved boards. The chair rail and other woodwork was painted red, as so many of the oldest homes in the County were. In the south-east corner, is a double trap door, two feet wide and four feet long, under this is a small room, not over six feet square and not high enough for one to stand. Ond could hide here without being detected by putting a rug over the door in such a manner, that it would spread out over the door as it closed.

On the outside at the west end of the building, just north of the chimney, are the remains of beautiful limestone slab steps going down to the cellar and spring room. Over the entrance of these steps is an arch, which shows fine masonry, for which the Spitlers were noted. There is no connection between the cellar and the small room under the trap door.

These two rooms were constructed with limestone rocks, beautifully cut, and put together well, making a structure, that with little care will last for ages. The roof is still covered with hand split shingles, but is badly in need of repairs. A few years ago, the chimney on the west wall fell, taking most of the west wall with it, which no doubt was caused by water seeping under it from the spring".

"Whitehall", the old Spitler homestead and the old family burying ground is on a part of the land originally deeded to John Spitler, which remained in the family name until April 23, 1937, when it was purchased at administrator's sale by Mr. Arthur Long. Mr. Long, however, is a decendant of John Spitler, belonging to the sixth generation.

Only five years elapsed after settling in this new country, until he passed to the great beyond on May 28, 1815, and was buried on his farm. His wife Barbara Kauffman was the daughter of Christian Kauffman, Sr., and a sister of David, who married Catherine Spitler, daughter of Jacob, first cousin of Joseph. He was born Dec. 6, 1776 Died June 17, 1843

The following Genealogical sketch of the Rothgeb family was prepared by Mr. S. H. Modesitt, Luray, Va.

The name in an early day was sometimes spelled and pronounced Roadcap, and there are a few who still use this spelling.

"Numbers in parenthesis indicate the generation to which the person names belonged.

Jacob Rothgeb (1) came to America about 1732. He served Joseph Strickler of Egypt Bend seven years to pay his passage across the ocean, and married a young woman who came across the waters with him for his first wife. They had one son named George (2). He married a Miss Good for his second wife and had a son named Peter(2).

On Sept. 15, 1749, Jacob Rothgeb received a grant for 400 acres of land on Mill Creek. This was the first grant signed by Lord Fairfax for land that is now in Page County. The road leading from Luray to Leaksville runs almost directly through the center of this original tract of 400 acres. The old church built in 1846 stands near the center of said tract.

Jacob Rothgeb's Will was probated Mar. 16, 1753. John Spitler, who lived on an adjoining tract was a witness to this Will and he too was dead. Each left two sons. The two sons of Jacob Rothgeb divided the farm A deed dated Sept. 28, 1771 from George (2) and Mary, his wife, deeds to Peter Rothgeb 200 acres, one-half the land of Jacob Rothgeb, deceased. This was the south side of the farm. Peter (2) built a house on this tract on the west side of Mill Creek. Peter sold 30 acres from the northwest corner of this tract to Casper Good. A deed from Casper Good and Catherine, his wife to George Rothgeb, made Mar. 11, 1783, speaks of getting the land from his brother Peter Rothgeb.

The remaining 170 acres was deeded Feb. 22, 1787, by Peter Rothgeb and Hannah, his wife, to Isaac Strickler and Abraham Spitler. Abraham Spitler married Mary Strickler, and I think the farm was purchased for their young kinsman. Jacob Strickler, a minor when he inherited the farm of his father Abraham Strickler, just west of the White House bridge. Isaac Strickler and Susannah, his wife, Abraham Spitler and Mary, his wife, deeded the farm to Jacob Strickler in June 1794 not long after Jacob Strickler became of age. The farm is still owned by the decendents of Jacob Strickler, who are also decendents of Jacob Rothgeb.

From George Rothgeb (2) has decended the Rothgebs of Page County and many others living in different sections of our country. He was married three times, first Miss Biedler, second Miss Graybil, and third Miss Bear, and was the father of nineteen children. A copy of George Rothgeb's (2) Will made in 1817 speaks of his children, the oldest mentioned first, Isaac, Abraham, Elizabeth, Jacob, David, Christian, George, Barbara, Samuel, Joseph, John, Anna, Michael, Esther and Reuben. The name of Mary (3), who married Isaac Shaffer does not appear, perhaps was overlooked in copying the Will. One son, Henry, died in youth, and if there were nineteen children, the other two must have died quite young.

Some account of George Rothgeb's children:

From Wayland's History of Shenandoah County, Va., under heading referring to the Hite Family: "Daniel, Andrew, John and Abraham Hite were residents of Shenandoah Co. during the Revolution. Daniel married Appolonia Keller and had David Hite, b. 1784, married Susanna Spitler, dau. of Abraham & Mary (Strickler) Spitler."

Two of these brothers, Abraham & Andrew Hite emigrated to Fairfield County, Ohio., and possibly John did also, but the writer has found no proof of this. Several families, all members of the same church of the Primitive Baptists, near Luray, Va., emigrated to Fairfield County, Ohio. in a body in about 1806 or 1807, and organized a church, the Pleasant Run Baptist Church, which was probably one of the oldest of any denomination organized in the County. A Few other families of this group were: Ruffners, Kagys, Spitlers, Biblers, Seitzs, Comers, Kauffmans, Musselmans, Ashbrooks.

Lewis Lionberger, with his two sons, Peter and John, came across the water in 1735. The two sons were first granted a tract of 1100 acre of land, but the Indians scared them further south into Carolina. In 1776 John came back and bought 372 acres of the original tract,(Deed dated May 24,1776, granted by Lord Fairfax).

Mr. Long is also the owner of the Old Spitler Homestead, having purchased same at Administrators Sale, on Apr. 23, 1937. This is part of the original tract deeded to John Spitler in 1749, and had been in the Spitler name continously until the above date.

"Zachariah Spitler was the first Clerk of Newton County. After the Black Hawk War, a bill was passed in 1835 to create new Counties and among them was Jasper. The first Commissioners Court was held in Parishe's Grove, and an order was made that all Courts thereafter should be held at the residence of George W. Spitler, of the south side of the Iroquois River, below the cut-off. George W. Spitler was the first Clerk, also Auditor and Recorder, and held his office for a number of years. In 1840 the County Seat was located at Rensselaer. In 1857, a new County was formed to be known as Newton, and on April 11, 1860, the officers were elected. Zachariah Spitler being chosen Clerk. It was in 1845 that the first saw-mill and corncracker was built by Jacob Kenoyer, who came to Spitler's Creek and built a dam across the stream near the residence, of brick, erected by Zachariah Spitler and now owned by his son George W. Spitler. In 1857 Zachariah Spitler, with others, opposed the formation of a new County along the Kankakee River.

The remonstrance was rejected, but Zachariah Spitler was appointed one of a committee of three to run the boundaries of the new County. In 1860 Zachariah Spitler was elected as the first Clerk of Newton County, a position which he held until 1864. On June 3, 1861, Zachariah Spitler and others petitioned to have the county seat moved to another location." (From A Standard History of Jasper & Newton Counties, Ind. Pleasant Run Baptist Church.

"Alfred Mesnard has kindly furnished me the original and continous book of record of the Pleasant Run Regular Baptist Church, of which he is the present Secretary. It will be seen by the following extract from the first page, that the church was first constituted in the year 1806.

April the 19th, 1806, then met according to Appointment and opened our meeting with prayer and praise. Second, proceeded to business with choosing our Moderator, Martin Coffman. Third, we also chose Samuel Comer for our Clerk, so ending our meeting with praise and thanksgiving."

Samuel Comer, Clerk. Martin Coffman, Moderator.

(Note- Dr. Scott makes mention of Martin Coffman again in this volume, spelled Kauffman, instead as above, being the first resident Minister in Fairfield County, Ohio, [illegible]

"Then follows the minutes of succeeding business meetings, occurring in May, June, July, August, Sept. Oct., and so on, at which Lewis Seitz, acted mostly as Moderator and Samuel Comer, Clerk, with Occasionally Martin Coffman, as Moderator on up to Aug. 1809, at which time the church had a membership of Ninety, whose names follow precisely in the order of the record. The names of the members are copied literally as they stand on the twenty-first page of the first church book of records, which leaves it difficult to understand why the interruption occurs at the number 50."

"The omission of number 33, in the list, reduces the number to 89, by supplying the numbers 72, 76, 77, and 78 with names, which we are allowed to think were not remembered.

The record literally quoted is a relic as well as history, and on that account valuable. So far as is known, not one of the above persons is living today. Pleasant Run Church is a living church at this time, with a few less than one hundred members. The congregation has continued its place of worship from the first, viz: in April 1806 up to the present spring of 1877, on the same spot where it began, which is a short distance east of Strickler's Cross-roads in pleasant Township. They have a commodious church edifice, sometimes spoken of as Strickler's Church, and sometimes as the Baptist Church. It is a melancholy thought, that the ninety persons once composing that body, so full of life, and love, and christian zeal, and filling their places in all of life's affairs, are no more. Their voices are silent, and their forms have disappeared. They have passed to their reward in the better land. The present Pastors of the church are: Revs. Schofield and Barker. "

Stricklers cross-roads, mentioned above, derived its name from John Strickler, who was a stone cutter and had a shop located there. He was an artist, and the grave stones which he made can be found in almost every old grave-yard in the northern two-thirds of Fairfield County, some in Perry, and a few in Licking County. The quality of the stone was much better than any other used for the purpose in that day. Many of them have withstood the ravages of time for over one hundred years, and the lettering on them is, apparently, as sharply defined as when first made. He must have had this stone transported for some distance.

His son, A. M. Strickler learned the trade, and followed the same line of work. He and a Mr. McNamee, who was also a fine stone cutter, had their establishment in later years, in the village of Pleasantville. It is assumed that John Strickler was a decendent of Abraham Strickler of Virginia.

Many families, who were the first members of the Pleasant Run Baptist Church, and organized it, were members of the same church, in what is now Page County, Va., and emigrated to Fairfield County in a body. Among them were, the Biblers, Kageys, Hites, Ruffners, Comers, Kauffmans, Musselmans, Spitlers, Seitzs. At this time, more than three score and ten years after the publication of Dr. Scott's History, the writer finds that the first book of records of the Pleasant Run Baptist Church, which he had access to, has been lost. All the others are in possession of the present Clerk. At this time the Church building itself is in a fairly good state of repair, but is seldom used as a meeting place.

Copy of a deed given by David & Elizabeth Spitler to the Trustees of The Pleasant Run Baptist Church for a burial ground, dated Jan. 2, 1838.

"Know all men by these presents that David and Elizabeth Spitler of the County of Fairfield, State of Ohio, for and in consideration of the sum of $1.00 to them in hand paid, do grant, sell, release, convey and confirm unto Henry Bretz, Tunis P. Ashbrook and Andrew Hite, Trustees of Pleasant Run Baptist Church in Pleasant Township, Fairfield County to and for the use of the Pleasant Run Baptist Church and neighborhood in the vicinity, on the premises hereby conveyed, to be occupied as a burying ground. The said David Spitler and Elizabeth, his wife, hereby deprive all persons from burying their dead, who may have come to their death, by hanging, suicide, or in any indecent manner whatsoever, being a part of the south half of the north-east quarter of section 22, Township 15, Range 18, designated by beginning at the north-east corner of said land, thence west 15 rds, thence south four rds. thence east 15 rds, thence north four rds. to beginning."

This was on the farm on which Jacob Spitler settled, and was purchased by his son, David, after his death in 1829. After the death of David in 1873 the farm was sold to Abraham Freed, and is now owned by his son, Charles Freed. All those buried in the burial ground, whose graves were marked, were removed to the present Pleasant Run burial ground.

In 1935 the writer had the privilege of seeing a clock, bearing the name of Johannes (John) Spitler and of Jacob Strickler, the date 1801, in the home of Mr. S.H. Modesitt near Luray, Va.
